

GETTING PREPPED FOR THE CPA EXAM EVOLUTION.

Changes are coming to the CPA Exam! To meet the demands of the modern CPA, the AICPA will launch its new exam format—called Evolution—in January 2024. At Becker, we are here to help you be as prepared as you can be, before and after Evolution changes occur.

THE MODEL CURRICULUM EXPECTS CHANGES

The CPA Evolution begins in January 2024. To address the ever-changing needs of today’s accountant, here are the topics from the model curriculum that are being added to the CPA Exam.

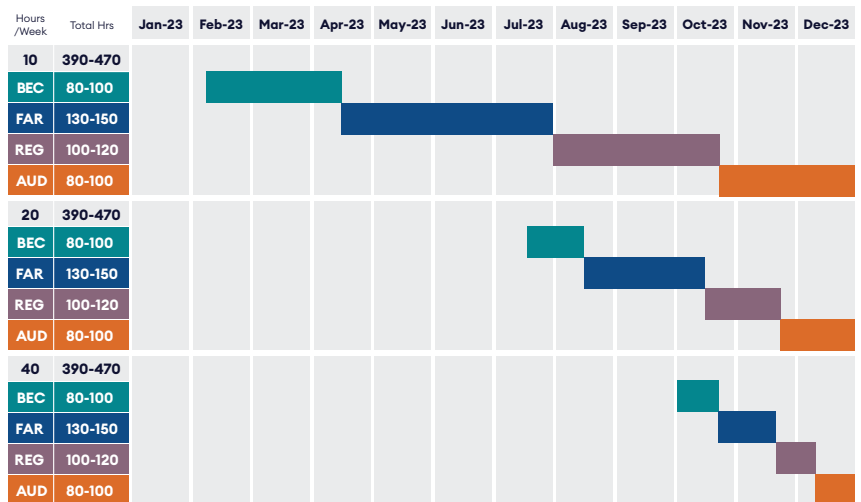

-  Critical Thinking
-  Advanced Data Analytics
-  Financial Data Analytics
-  Technology
-  Digital Acumen
-  Personal Financial Advisory Services
-  Methods of Taxation

HOW TO PREPARE FOR THE PRE-EVOLUTION CPA EXAM

Let the chart to the right serve as a roadmap for mapping out your unique CPA Exam study plan. Becker recommends that you study for and pass BEC first. This is the model for completing the CPA Exam by the end of 2023, whether you plan on studying 10, 20 or 40 hours per week.

Good-to-know: Becker’s CPA Exam Review course is packed with a detailed study planner and so much more. For all things exam prep, visit

CPA Exam Review

NO MORE WAITING. START PREPARING NOW!

Our advice: prepare and sit for the CPA Exam now, before Evolution changes take effect in 2024. Don’t wait any longer; now is the time. Start your two-week free trial for CPA Exam Review at becker.com/cpa-review/course-demos

DON'T WAIT!

Prepare yourself now, so you're not blindsided as changes happen.